Today's Games

The Cedarville University women's softball team hosts the University of Rio Grande Redwomen in an American Midwest Conference South Division doubleheader today at Lady Jacket Field.

The Lady Jackets enter today's contest with a 13-7 mark (0-0 AMC South) after sweeping AMC North Division member Geneva College - 1-0 (11 innings) and 4-0 - last Saturday. The Redwomen bring a 13-5 overall record including a 2-0 AMC South Division record into today's games. Rio Grande split a doubleheader at Pikeville (KY) on Monday.

Katy Dellicarpini continues to lead the 2004 Lady Jackets with a .353 batting average (18 for 51) and four doubles. The junior first sacker is second on the squad with two triples and 26 total bases. Senior thirdbaseman Ashley Smith has registered five triples and a homerun while leading the team in RBI's (12) and total bases (33). Junior outfielder Richelle Clem has raised her batting average to .303 on 10-of-33 hitting. Ginger Keithley, another junior outfielder, has posted a team-leading 13 runs scored while recording 22 stolen bases in 23 attempts. Natalie Fox, a junior pitcher, has won 6 games while allowing 8 earned runs in 78.2 innings pitched for an impressive 0.71 ERA. Junior backstop Courtney Thayer is contributing with a .283 batting average and 16 total bases. Sophomore pitcher Allie Smith has registered 7 wins with a 1.52 ERA in ten starts for the Lady Jackets. Fox and Smith have combined for nine shutouts in the first 20 games of 2004 - just one away from tying the school record for most shutouts in a season (10).

Rio Grande returns a solid nucleus of players from last year's 23-13 squad. Headlining the list is All-AMC South Division First Teamer Jenny Olding. The sophomore outfielder leads the Redwomen this year in hitting, base hits, doubles, home runs and total bases. Emily Cooper, an All-AMC South Division Second Team pick last year is back and leads the squad in runs scored. A pair of sophomores anchor the Rio pitching staff - Stephanie Broccoli has posted six wins and two shutouts while Andrea Lotycz has also recorded six wins to go along with 29 strikeouts and one shutout.

Rio Grande leads the all-time series with Cedarville by a slim 14-13 margin. The two teams split each of their doubleheaders played last spring - Cedarville defeated the Redwomen 8-6 before losing a 9-2 contest at Lady Jacket Field. In the second meeting, Cedarville dropped a 3-2 18-inning decision before winning the nightcap 3-0 at Rio Grande.

Katy Dellicarpini leads the Lady Jackets in hitting with a .353 batting average.

Last At Bat

Natalie Fox and Allie Smith fired back-to-back shutouts to lead Cedarville to a doubleheader sweep over visiting Geneva last Saturday. The Lady Jackets won by scores of 1-0 in 11 innings and 4-0 which gives them nine shutouts on the season.

The Yellow Jackets won the opener on a two-out single by Richelle Clem which scored Ashley Smith from second base. Clem looped a ball into shallow left field, Geneva's left fielder dove for the ball and had it pop out of her glove with Smith scoring. Fox struck out six and walked one in notching her fifth shutout of the season. Ginger Keithley had three hits while Ashley Smith and Katy Dellicarpini added two apiece.

Allie Smith checked the Golden Tornadoes on a three-hitter in the nightcap for her fourth straight victory and her fourth shutout overall. Ashley Smith sparked a three-run 1st inning with a leadoff triple. She finished 2-for-3 with two runs scored. Clem and Tara Munson were each 1-for-2 with two RBI's while Kallin Acheson contributed two hits.

On Deck

The Lady Jacket softball team visits AMC North Division member Notre Dame College for a doubleheader on Monday set to begin at 3 p.m. Cedarville will travel to Ohio Dominican University for an AMC South Division twinbill on Thursday, April 7 at 3 p.m. The squad returns to the home turf for another AMC South doubleheader on Tuesday, April 13 versus Walsh University at 3 p.m.
